EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT/REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ann Muetting on 7/24/2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 61, line 1: delete "claim 61" and insert in place thereof the following:

-- claim 58 --.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In consideration of Amendment (5/11/2006) and in reconsideration of the prior Office Actions and responses thereto, the restriction of claims 22-24,32-36,40 is withdrawn and the claimed invention is neither expressly disclosed nor fairly suggested by the prior art. The prior art does not disclose or make obvious a stable antiseptic composition that combines an antimicrobial agent selected from iodine and/or iodophor, where the available iodine is not more than about 1.5 wt%, with a hydroxycarboxylic acid buffer in an amount in excess of 5wt%, water and a substantive cationic film-forming polymer. Kross (US Pat. 5,618,841) teaches that it is desirable for the organic acid buffer to be in the concentration range of from about 0.05% to 5.0% and that higher amounts of organic acid buffer is used when higher amounts of iodine are present, such as 0.2% acid with 0.2% iodine and 2% acid with 2% iodine (Column 5, lines 29-38). As such, Kross teaches away from the claimed invention as presently amended by teaching away from using greater than 5% of an organic acid buffer when, as claimed in the present claims, less than about 1.5 wt% of iodine is present. In view of the above, the double-patenting rejections over Application No. 10/922,262 (provisional) and US Pat. 6,838,078 are withdrawn as the claims of said application and patent, alone, neither expressly disclosed nor fairly suggested the claimed invention. Further, in consideration of said Amendment (5/11/2006) and Response (5/11/2006), the rejections under 112-1st and 2nd paragraphs are withdrawn (Response (5/11/2006), pages 14,15).

Art Unit: 1616

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
